A former Victorian prison makes the perfect escape for Sharon and Andy

The Malmaison Hotel in the heart of Oxford City offers a wonderful relaxing experience with cupcakes by the Cupcake Baker

Photos, left to right: our lemon, carrot and chocolate cupcakes in silver foil cases with silver hearts with a top cake with a silver organza ribbon; interior of the former prison where rows of cells above and below the walkway are now upmarket bedrooms (many famous people have stayed there including Robert Redford); Above, wedding reception room; front view and entrance of the Malmaison Hotel.

Fabulous Flowers and fabulous cupcakes!

Our nominated charity for 2010 was Abingdon based Against Breast Cancer. The Cupcake Baker supported Fabulous Flowers with the fund raising event in November at Abindon School. The Fabulous Floral Demonstration in their theatre was the highlight of the show with our cupcakes at the reception and interval. The flower displays were auctioned at the end of the evening and all our cakes were sold, adding to the large amount of money raised.

Dear Cupcake Baker,
Thank you for the cupcakes. They were a huge success and looked stunning on the stand before hand.
Best wishes, Jane. (masquerade party)

Left: a sample of 150 cupcakes and top cake for her daughter's 18th birthday party, February 2011.

Dear Cathy, just a note of thanks to you and your partner for the safe delivery of the excellent cupcakes today at the Magdalen Arms. So beautiful and so delicious! Pictured here is my daughter Cleo (centre), and her cousins Peter and Rebecca. Best wishes, Sharon

Prince William and Kate Middleton will marry on Friday April 29th at Westminster Abbey and the UK will be celebrating with a national holiday.

Fresher flavours are emerging

Cupcakes for weddings are still very, very popular with flavours such as red velvet or carrot, a great choice as well as the more traditional vanilla and lemon. This year purple, ivory and silver are no. 1 with lots of our wedding couples.

Here at the Cupcake Baker we predict there will be lots of fresher flavours emerging such as passion fruit or pomegranite for instance.

William and Kate for their royal wedding have opted for a traditional style multi-tiered fruit cake with sugar flowers along with a chocolate biscuit cake. We do our own chocolate biscuit cake, boxed and ready to post, call 01235 533370.
